Sunday, June 13 1898

GLAD OF IT.

We congratulate Carson, Sam. Davis and the State of Nevada; the Director of the Mint has ordered the Carson Mint to be reopened. Senator Fair must be credited with the influence which secured this good action for the benefit of the Silver State.—Alta.

Probably the good Col. Irish means this in a somewhat ironical sense. No one in this city is more pleased than the APPEAL to see the Mint open, not even excepting Major Garrard. The fact that Fair has been instrumental in bringing it about makes no difference, so long as it is in operation and the Government is paying out money to the officers and employees. We believe that the exertions made last Winter by the citizens of Carson, irrespective of party, and the able paper by Gen. Clarke on the subject is the underlying cause of the Mint's resumption. If Senator Fair wants to claim any credit for it he is at liberty to do so.

The APPEAL will not growl at Democratic Mints being established in Nevada. We would like to see two in Carson, one in each ward, running two sets of hands, all Democrats, night and day.

From a political standpoint the APPEAL was not at all sorry to see the Mint closed down. It was filled with carpet baggers, dudes, Mugwumps and misers. There wasn't over four regular Republicans in the place. It was an asylum for political wrecks, superannuated old frauds, sniveling civil service reformers, and close fistled pap suckers who never spent a dollar for the town party or anything else if they could avoid it. We were glad to see the old stowaways take a walk. Thank God, most of them have migrated to California where they belong. We prefer the regular unwashed Democrats to the mongrel gang and so do all decent Republicans. Open the Mint, fill it with Bourbons and turn the machinery loose we will not complain. Keep it in good running order for two years and it can be easily furnished politically for the old line Republicans to occupy.

Heathen Tricks.

Surveyor Tinnin was busy yesterday superintending the landing of the Chinese from the steamer Oceanic. All were allowed to come ashore but about twenty-five. Some of these may yet be permitted to land after further inquiry. The Surveyor has struck a new dodge that puzzles him a good deal. A woman comes from China with one, two or three children. She has a certificate, but the children have none. It is also morally certain that she has bought the children in China for improper purposes, although she claims them as her own. In refusing to let the children land with the woman he places himself in the position of depriving them of a protection. He has a case of this kind in an old hag who arrived on the Oceanic with a boy and girl of tender years.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company has refused to take Chinese who have been denied the right to land, back to China, unless their passage is paid. This ground was taken when Ah Sue was remanded after habeas corpus proceedings. As there was no money in the United States Marshal's hands to pay the passage, Judge Hoffman made an order allowing him to go to Honolulu at his own expense. Considerable annoyance will be entailed on the authorities here if the company maintains this attitude, for it will force the Government to either allow them to land or to pay their passage back to China. If persisted in, however, retaliatory measures will probably be adopted, as it is a violation of law for the master of a vessel to bring Chinese here not entitled to land.

The Stockton Mail nominates for one of the Supreme Justices of California, Superior Judge J. F. Sullivan, of San Francisco, "the incorruptible Judge whom Sharon's millions could not swerve from the strict line of duty." It is nothing against him that his childhood days were spent in this city, where the ragged and bare-footed Irish lad laid the foundation of the education that fitted him for becoming one of the foremost Judges in California.

—It is reported from San Francisco that the renomination of Gov. Adams to his present office is not assured. The suggestion is that Col. Hardin of Humboldt and Theodore Winters of Washoe are the opponents who will make things lively at the Convention.

—The unusual number of Chinese now arriving at San Francisco, is all the evidence necessary that something a great deal more effective than the present Restriction Act is needed.
